

Unitarian Universalist Justice Ministry of California

Covenant of Collaboration

"Our congregation wishes to collaborate with the Unitarian Universalist Justice Ministry of California. We will join with the network of California UUs who are living out our faith by educating, organizing, and advocating for public policies that speak to our UU values while building beloved community, collaborative justice, and collective liberation."

Our Congregation/Fellowship/Community will...

- Engage in social justice education, witness and advocacy as part of our congregational life;
- Inform & update UUMCA as to the justice priorities important to our congregation and its members
- Designate a UUMCA Liaison to represent our congregation in cluster and statewide networks.
- Encourage members of our congregation to participate UUMCA-sponsored or promoted regional and statewide trainings, activities (related to congregational justice priorities), and cluster events;
- Foster UUMCA support, visibility, membership and involvement among our congregation;
- Partner with UUMCA to strengthen our congregation's justice ministry through education, witness and advocacy opportunities and resources;
- Ensure social justice materials from UUMCA are shared in accessible manners for our membership; and
- Hold an annual Sunday for the UU Justice Ministry of California – either by inviting a guest minister or lay leader from UUMCA leadership, or by including UUMCA content in your own worship service.
- Not required but encouraged - Send an annual contribution to UUMCA. The suggested donation is .5% - 1% of your annual budget and can come from a budget line item or special collection.

The Unitarian Universalist Justice Ministry of California will...

- Provide regular updates on issues, legislation, witness, and advocacy efforts to the congregation;
- Provide access to resources for the congregation to delve deeper into UU-grounded, accountable social justice work by developing and sharing educational and worship materials;
- Provide regional trainings on issues and capacity building in a way that helps strengthen the congregation;
- Provide leadership development opportunities for the congregation's leadership, both clergy and lay, related to social justice and capacity building;
- Support inter-congregational cooperation in justice-making efforts;
- Provide opportunities for the congregation's membership to engage in social justice education, advocacy, and witness that deepens their faith and makes life better in California;
- Connect congregations to partners and coalitions relative to their areas of focus, interfaith and secular;
- Foster the spiritual foundation of justice ministry;
- Foster the engagement of young adult UUs;
- Coordinate enhanced media visibility for UU values; and
- Provide e-advocacy tools for federal, statewide and local engagement on issues related to our shared UU values along with an on-line environment for collaborating on local social justice engagement.

Communicating our Shared Commitment

UUJMCA will place your congregation’s name and appropriate information on our website under “Affiliated Congregations,” and you will receive a letter and certificate as recognition of our commitment to a vital and sustained justice ministry in California. If your congregation has a Facebook page, we will also link it to ours. We ask that your congregation place a link to www.uujmca.org on its website and include our contact information (email, phone, address) in your congregational directory. We will also provide an introductory letter from our Executive Director along with a booklet for placement in newcomer packets or wherever is appropriate to reach newcomers to your community.

We affirm the value of a statewide justice ministry that supports congregations and empowers UUs to take action in a faith-rooted, effective manner. We affirm the importance of congregations as a core community for Unitarian Universalists and as vital to effective relationship-oriented justice.
